

Inventory of Manhattan Records from the Archives of the Episcopal Diocese of New York at the Cathedral of St. John the Divine

This inventory lists the records available to researchers in the Archives of the Episcopal Diocese of New York at the Cathedral of St. John the Divine. It was created by volunteers at the archives which graciously granted the NYG&BS permission to post the inventory to aid the research of our members. It lists the records of 46 Episcopal congregations and organizations in Manhattan, both active and defunct. The records may be consulted by appointment only by contacting the Episcopal Diocese of New York Archives at 212-316-7419 or by email archives@diocesenyc.org.

The Episcopal Church does not have a central index or repository for its sacramental records, nor are there any major indexes of such records. Records of baptism, marriage, and burial may be found only in the sacramental register of the church in which the service was performed. Hence you would need to identify what specific church your ancestors attended and then try to track down the whereabouts of the sacramental records for that specific church. One helpful hint: knowing the name of the minister who married or baptized an ancestor can easily lead to the identity of the church in question as there are national clergy directories available. One might also determine the address at which the family lived; knowing that, we might be able to determine which Episcopal Churches were nearest to that address. Of course that is no guarantee that the family attended that particular church.

The New York Diocesan Archives does have the sacramental registers for a number of churches that have closed over the past century; active churches maintain their own registers, although in a few instances the archives acts as records custodian for those active churches with special storage needs; and, there are cases where such records have been destroyed by fire, flood etc. There are also rare occasions when those records were deposited in the collections of local libraries or historical societies years ago. The Episcopal Diocese of New York is composed of the boroughs of Manhattan, Staten Island, the Bronx, and six northern counties: Westchester, Putnam, Dutchess, Rockland, Sullivan, Orange and Ulster.

MANHATTAN	CATHEDRAL CHURCH OF ST. JOHN THE DIVINE (Active)	1892-present	Cornerstone laid in 1892. Services held in the old Asylum Building until 1892, when they were moved to the Crypt of the Cathedral. For sacramental records prior to those indicated in Register #1, the records were likely recorded in the parish of the officiating minister, the parish of the subject, or in the registers of the nearest churches, those being St. Michaels, St. Mary's Manhattanville, and All Souls Church. No register of burials was maintained except for a brief period from 1914-1937. Burial services held in the Cathedral are recorded in the Service Registers. A columbarium was built in 1979. Records for those whose ashes are interred there are held at the Cathedral Offices.	Extent: 12 vols. Inclusive dates: 1911-2004 Register 1. Baptisms 1913-1919 Confirmations 1915-1926 Marriages 1911-1917 Burials 1914-1937 Register 2. Baptisms 1919-1929 Register 3. Baptisms 1929-1943 Register 4. Baptisms 1943-1960 Register 5. Confirmations 1926-1942 Register 6. Marriages 1917-1924 Register 7. Marriages 1924-1930 Register 8. Marriages 1930-1942 Register 9. Marriages 1942-1957 Register 10. Marriages 1957-1976
