Digitize New York

<https://www.newyorkfamilyhistory.org/digitize-new-york>

Through the Digitize New York initiative, the NYG&B partners with organizations across New York State to digitally preserve records and make them available online. Online visitors can learn more about the project and its current operations. In addition, details on submitting an application to preserve materials through the program and recently released online collections are available.

The NYG&B has three digitization centers around New York State. In 2021, the New York City center opened, followed by Central New York in 2024 and Western New York in 2025. Using our state-of-the-art camera and software, materials are scanned, digitally preserved, and uploaded online to an ever-growing searchable collection of New York historical records. Digitize New York also equips eligible organizations with a digitization kit, which empowers communities to digitize onsite.

Collections Catalog

The NYG&B's Online Collections Catalog can most easily be located from the top navigation bar under "Online Records", which is viewable from any page of the website. When hovering over "Online Records", the button for "Collections Catalog" appears as the second item in the drop-down menu.

The Town of Niles, Cayuga County Collection

<https://www.newyorkfamilyhistory.org/online-records/collection/town-niles-cayuga-county>

This collection contains town government records documenting the administration and civic life of the Town of Niles from 1779 to 1891. These records provide valuable evidence for genealogical and historical research in Cayuga County, New York.

The Town of Niles, Cayuga County collection was digitized in partnership with the Town of Niles. You can learn more about the town and its history at: <https://townofnilesny.gov/> and <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=SRqcGe5ArR4>
